FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Kevin Davies to Lead Plumas Bank's Kings Beach Branch

New business advisor/branch manager joins as branch celebrates 20 years

Reno, Nev. (April 30, 2025) — Plumas Bank, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Plumas Bancorp, has hired Kevin Davies to serve as assistant vice president, business advisor/branch manager at its Kings Beach branch. Davies is an experienced management professional with over 12 years of leading diverse teams and overseeing financial and operational processes. In this role, Davies will be responsible for overseeing the branch's daily operations, managing staff, driving financial performance, ensuring compliance and maintaining strong client relations relationships.

"I look forward to getting involved in the Kings Beach community and helping our local businesses grow and thrive," said Davies. "I've always been a people-oriented person, so to be part of a community bank like Plumas Bank that is fully committed to client relationships and supporting local communities makes this a perfect fit for me."

Davies is a native Nevadan and a graduate of the University of Nevada, Reno; in his free time he enjoys volunteering for conservation and sustainability causes and acting in community theater productions.

"As we celebrate 20 years of serving the Kings Beach community, we look forward to adding Kevin's expertise in leadership and his proven ability to build strong relationships to our team," said Tracy Thurber, Senior Vice President, Branch Administration and Client Experience at Plumas Bank. "His management style and people-first mindset will be an asset as we serve the community and power the aspirations of local businesses in Kings Beach."
