Plumas Bank Welcomes David Sirna to Lead Reno Branch, Kyle Whaley Promoted to Sierra Region Operations Manager

RENO, Nev. (August, 2026)— Plumas Bank is pleased to announce the appointment of David Sirna as vice president, business advisor and branch manager serving Reno and the surrounding area. Sirna will lead Plumas Bank's Reno branch operations while supporting business clients and strengthening the bank's presence in the Northern Nevada market.

Sirna brings more than 30 years of banking experience to Plumas Bank and is well known throughout Northern Nevada's financial community. Throughout his career, he has held branch leadership positions where he built a strong reputation for developing high-performing teams, fostering customer relationships, and driving branch growth.

In addition to his banking expertise, Sirna has a long history of community involvement. He currently serves on the boards of Rebuilding Together Northern Nevada and Nevada Volunteers, two nonprofit organizations dedicated to strengthening communities and supporting residents throughout the region. He previously served on the board of the Nevada Bankers Association and remains active in a local Business Network International (BNI) chapter.

"David's extensive banking experience, proven leadership skills, and deep roots in the Reno community make him an outstanding addition to our team," said Kyle Whaley, vice president, operations manager for the Sierra Region. Whaley opened the Plumas Bank Reno branch in 2015 and served as the Reno branch manager and business advisor for more than a decade. He was recently promoted to vice president and operations manager overseeing 11 of Plumas Bank's 19 branches including Reno, Carson City, Lake Tahoe and the Eastern Sierra. Whaley and Sirna will work closely together to ensure a smooth transition.

Whaley added, "We are thrilled to welcome David to Plumas Bank and look forward to the positive impact he will have on our clients, employees, and community."

A Reno resident for more than 25 years, Sirna enjoys restoring and selling classic cars, gardening, working on home improvement projects, and spending time with his family.
