

KENDALL JOINS PLUMAS BANK
AS VICE PRESIDENT, CLIENT ENGAGEMENT SPECIALIST

QUINCY, California, June 3, 2019— Plumas Bank, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Plumas Bancorp (NASDAQ:PLBC), recently announced that Stacy Kendall has joined the bank as vice president, client engagement specialist. Kendall is responsible for expanding the bank’s client-centric culture, brand building, digital outreach and enhancing the client experience. Prior to joining Plumas Bank, Kendall worked at Renown Health in Reno, Nevada. As director of communications and new media for the region’s largest, locally owned health system, she launched the organization’s digital media strategies to advance growth in market share, consumer preference and online engagement.

Executive Vice President and Chief Banking Officer, BJ North, commented, “Stacy brings depth and experience across many dimensions to Plumas Bank. Her strong leadership and coaching skills coupled with her passion to align solutions with client needs make her a great addition to our team. We are confident Stacy will contribute greatly to the success of Plumas Bank.”

Kendall was named Twenty Under 40 by the Reno-Gazette Journal and Reno Tahoe Young Professional’s Network for professional excellence and community leadership. She’s earned 32 industry awards and presented at four national conferences for achievements in customer online convenience and digital access, public relations thought leadership initiatives, employee engagement and crisis communications.

Kendall is a lifelong volunteer receiving the Gold Spike for Community Excellence from Public Relations Society of America – Sierra Nevada Chapter. She currently serves as board of directors vice chair for The Discovery Museum in Reno and a volunteer mentor for women in technology.
